

AMCTO's Corporate Training

BUILDING DYNAMIC TEAMS IN MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT

1-Day Workshop

During this fun and interactive workshop you will develop an understanding of yourself and others using Personality Dimensions Temperament Theory. Enhance your ability to communicate with and understand individuals of all temperaments to improve relationships and build strong teams. Bringing together individuals to create a cohesive unit that encourages co-operation and promotes interaction sounds easy, in practice it can be quite challenging. Positive leaders can create a thriving team and boost productivity through building trust and effective group communication. Maximize team happiness by understanding strengths and differences, yours and theirs.

You will learn:

- How Personality Dimensions Temperament Theory can help you to appreciate yourself and others
- How to organize efficient teams that yield higher productivity
- The five dysfunctions of a team and how the positive approach can change the way your team thinks
- The common qualities of a good senior management team and how breaking down the silos can create a stronger corporate structure

Teambuilding is a daily activity not a one-off event and the creation and maintenance of strong teams is at the core of this session.
