

Addressing Systemic Discrimination In The Workplace

Most organizations today are struggling to make Diversity, Equity and Inclusion a meaningful and sustainable reality. This workshop will provide participants with an understanding of systemic discrimination, the dimensions of diversity, Canada's long history with systemic racism and discrimination and how it shows up in the workplace. Participants will be guided through the steps individuals and organizations should take to create environments that that are diverse, inclusive and safe.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the complex nature of addressing diversity, equity and inclusion
- Understand the value and importance of inclusive practices
- Gain knowledge of foundational truths that will increase desire to be part of the solution
- Empower individuals to develop and implement action plans
- Gain tools and strategies to create a diverse and inclusive environment

This training is ideal for:

- All internal and external service providers
- HR managers and recruitment leads
- All supervisors, managers, and team leaders
- All executive leaders

More information?

Contact Jeanne Moon, Coordinator Programs & Services, for further details or questions:
jmoon@amcto.com / (905) 602-4294 ext. 222

If you are interested in booking this Corporate Training Workshop, please click here to submit a request through our online booking system.