

SAVE YOUR CITY

HOW TOXIC CULTURE KILLS COMMUNITY & WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

Save Your City is an absolute must-read for everyone involved in local government and engaged citizens. It combines the philosophy of Ancient Greece and Rome with the challenges of modern governance in an increasingly uncivil society where the notion of “love thy neighbour,” once anchored in biblical and secular culture, has been replaced in many boardrooms by a spirit of “what’s in it for me?” I commend it to you.

GEORGE B. CUFF, FCMC

Toxic culture is eroding our sense of belonging, community, and well-being. Our capacity to collaborate and innovate together is also being undermined by the rising incivility and divisiveness.

In this thought-provoking and inspiring new book, author Diane Kalen-Sukra empowers community leaders and citizens to be part of the solution. She demonstrates what’s involved by taking readers on a journey from Bullyville to Sustainaville, including an eye-opening visit to classical antiquity.

This special Municipal World edition includes the full text of the book plus:

- a forward by George B. Cuff, author, management consultant, governance expert; and
- Save Your City Companion Workbook

About the Diane Kalen-Sukra

Diane Kalen-Sukra was born with the gift of encouragement and desire for everyone around her to thrive and meet their potential. Her core belief is that as social beings, we flourish in healthy sustainable communities, where good governance, servant leadership and compassionate culture support the well-being of all.

Today, Diane supports community leaders through her firm Kalen Consulting. She is an engaging and inspiring speaker, a regular columnist with Municipal World, and a multi-award-winning CAO. Her “civic academy” column covers everything from good governance and local democracy to sustainable community building, while she makes the case for greater civic education in society.
